

Milestone 1 - The Topic

Choose a programming language. The language cannot be Python and it should be popular enough that you can find good sources of information. A programming language with low popularity will be difficult to find enough resources to cover all of the required information in this paper.

The deliverable for this milestone is a short paragraph of the programming language you selected and reasoning. A minimum of five well-structured sentences is expected. Due at the end of Week 2.